ARTWORK PROOF AGREEMENT

CLIENT: _____ of _____, _____ (Name) (City) (State)

As a service to our clients, HOVUS Incorporated (the Company) provides Artwork Proofs for the purpose of avoiding print errors, and to illustrate the style and arrangement of font and color breaks as they will appear on the final printed job. The proof(s) colors are not an exact representation of how the colors will appear on the completed printed job, but the Pantone Matching System (PMS) numbers provided will be matched to the dyes selected for the print run.

The Client shall not hold the Company responsible for non-compliance with local, state or federal laws and regulations regarding trademark or copyright infringement, design and unfair competition practices or the like.

The Company assumes no responsibility for errors remaining uncorrected by the Client on executed artwork proof(s). Subsequent changes by the Client may be requested for pending orders only if production of the item(s) has yet to be scheduled. The Client's assistance in returning a signed copy of this agreement and all artwork proof(s) is required for production. This agreement does not need to accompany artwork proof(s) submitted at a later date to remain in full force.

Please note, the quoted costs associated with set-up and casing run(s) ordered from this proof become the liability of the Client upon agreement to this statement as indicated by the signature below.
